

Town of James Island

History Commission

Agenda

January 3 2017

6:00 PM Meeting commences

Old Business

Current status of Intergovernmental Council/MUSC/CCPR and Town of James Island re Fort Johnson/Town of James Island Park.

Status of Resolution opposing razing of Pine Tree Hotel at Mosquito Beach.

Status of Simian Pinckney Historical Marker.

New Business

Presentation and Review -

Skipper Keith 's "Historical Sites of Interest"

Bill Wilder's P&C 8/12/2001 article "Black Beaches in the Low Country";

Article re: The Sol Legare Fisherman and Farmer's and the King Solomon Lodge's

Discussion on developing strategies and make efforts to develop sites to attract history buffs and others with interests in African-American, Civil War, Colonial, Revolutionary and other aspects of James Island/South Carolina/American history. i.e. library development; economic development.

Establishing/reinforcing ongoing relationships with other resources for scholarly and financial support of Commission projects.

Request greater responsibility for Chairman in participating in bringing to fruition the decisions of the Commission.